How we operate:

- A professional presentation, from start to finish
- Work one-on-one to create the right atmosphere for your event – no cookie cutters!
- Prompt and clear communication
- Attention to detail
- We do whatever it takes to ensure that your event is a success

Praise for J&J:

I have been working with J&J music for over a year now. I know when I book a date with them my needs will be met with the utmost professionalism. They are an absolute pleasure to deal with.

- Will Kane – Production Manager at The Triple Door/Musicquarium Lounge

J&J Music is the first professional music company I contact when my clients request live music at their event. Their excellent customer service, responsiveness to my client's needs, and knowledge of the music industry makes working with J&J Music a positive and seamless experience

- Lisa Yamasaki – President of Mona Lisa Events

ToST has partnered with J&J Music on a number of occasions to book live music nights at our venue. Their professionalism combined with their connections within the music community result in successful nights filled with great music!

- Chris Lang – Owner of ToST Lounge

Add J&J Music to your team and entertainment will be one less thing you have to deal with. From contracting the bands to working with the venue to making sure your event runs smoothly, J&J will handle all the details.
